Happy to talk by phone and record if that's easier. Doesn't have to be perfect at this stage. Just want to put something in with the simple detail of your having met her, when you married, etc… Which, as I said, you will almost certainly want to change in any case before we get to the final version. My thinking is that Nili should definitely be in the book (as you'll see, I've included your account of the first meetings) and that if so, you need at least some mention of your first marriage as well. Also your kids (for instance, because we'll be mentioning your infant eldest daughter in the passages about going to Stanford the first time.) Just let me know when is the best time to talk by phone and I'll call. Would it be easier to chat for a few minutes now?
Best
Ned
